User friendly CommunicAid Kit

180 black & white illustrations
108 colour photo's.

Description:

A simple, user friendly Communication Aid for people with expressive language difficulties. CommunicAid is available in English, Greek and Italian, and an adaptable version for other languages. The kit contains 2 Pocket sized albums, an easy to follow user guide book with considerations for people with eye conditions, 180 Black and white line illustrations, 108 colour photographs, a pain scale, and a CD containing the full set of illustrations and photos to be adapted for other languages.

Applications:

Imagine you could not find the right words to ask for a cup of tea, or tell someone you had a headache or felt sad. For many people living with dementia this is a confrontation they face on a daily basis. This kit gives a person the opportunity to have their own individual CommunicAid, to enable them to make choices, decisions and express their personal needs and wishes.
