Do you support a family member with dementia?

If so, we are interested in your thoughts on support for carers, and how technology might be used to help provide support for carers.

Carers’CARE App
A project to develop support tools for carers of people with dementia