TELEPHONE DEMENTIA SUPPORT SERVICE SOUTH EAST NSW

ALZHEIMER’S AND DEMENTIA AUSTRALIA AND HOPE
FIGHTDEMENTIA.ORG.AU
THE TELEPHONE DEMENTIA SUPPORT SERVICE OFFERS....

• A friendly ear to listen and provide advice.
• A key person to be in contact with you however often you choose.
• The opportunity to support you through difficult times and share happy times.
• Help you to organise additional support when you need it.

HOW THE SERVICE WORKS....

• We will work with you to develop a plan of telephone contact to suit your individual circumstances.
• You will be provided the same contact person each time we telephone you.
• We will respect your wishes and ensure confidentiality at all times.
• The service will be delivered in a culturally safe and appropriate manner.

HOW TO REGISTER....

• Anyone can contact our service and request support for themselves or someone they know.

CONTACT US BY TELEPHONING
(02) 6492 6158
or email us at nsw.southeast@alzheimers.org.au

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:
Services provided by Alzheimer’s Australia NSW are supported by financial assistance from the Australian and NSW Governments as well as from other funding sources.

We respectfully acknowledge the Traditional Owners of the land on which we live and work.

THE NATIONAL DEMENTIA HELPLINE 1800 100 500
The National Dementia Helpline is an initiative of the Australian Government

Translating and Interpreter Service: 131 450